

LI WANG

Li Wang's passionate and personal style has distinguished him as one of Canada's finest young artists. Gold medal winner of the First Canadian Chopin Piano Competition, Li Wang has enjoyed success on the international competition circuit, claiming awards and distinctions in the AXA Dublin International Piano Competition, 43rd Maria Canals International Piano Competition in Barcelona, the International Franz Liszt Piano Competition held in Budapest, and the Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow, in which he was the only Canadian accepted to compete.

In 2003, Mr. Wang performed a benefit concert for Ethiopian famine relief in Toronto where his "flawless technique combined with his light touch to produce the most exquisite tonal effects" (John Terauds, The Toronto Star).

Born in Beijing, Mr. Wang discovered his passion for the piano while studying under his father, and furthered his musical training at the Beijing Central Conservatory of Music, the Conservatoire Nationale Supérieure de Musique in Paris, and The Royal Conservatory's Glenn Gould School in Canada under the tutelage of James Anagnoson. A resident of Toronto, Mr. Wang is currently piano faculty at both The Glenn Gould School and Young Artists Performance Academy of The Royal Conservatory.
